Travel Information

Air Travel

Fly into Honolulu, Hawaii on the island of Oahu. Most all of the major airlines, including international flights, fly into Honolulu as do some of the smaller airlines. You might also check out Alaska or Hawaiian Airlines, two of the smaller airlines which often have great rates, especially from the West Coast of the U.S.

Lodging:

- The training will take place at the Lotus which is an oceanfront hotel in Waikiki (the tourist district in Honolulu). There are LOTS of hotels in Waikiki and Honolulu, and we encourage you to shop around if you do not want to stay at the lotus. There are many hotels walking distance to the Lotus. Plus there is public transportation and rental bikes if you don't want to walk or rent a car.
- You can also find lodging in this area via AirBnB.com or VRBO.com. (Search in Waikiki and/or Diamond Head).
- Military Lodging: If you are a military ID card holder (or sponsored by someone who is), you can find discount lodging at the following locations. They are listed in general order of proximity to the training site:

Rental Car

If you plan on renting a vehicle, there are several companies at the Honolulu airport and in Waikiki where you can rent a car. There are several shuttle services listed below, as well as local cab companies, Uber and Lyft.

King Airport Shuttle	www.kingairportshuttle.com
Aloha Airport Shuttle	www.alohaairportshuttle.com

Items to Bring to the Event:

Please bring whatever items will allow you to rest comfortably for movement, breathing and meditation practices, including a yoga mat, blanket, pillow, eye bag or small towel, socks, cover-up, and any other props. The body temperature does drop during relaxation practices and the room is air-conditioned so please bring layers to ensure your comfort.

The hotel is near a great beach to swim, surf or sun bathe, and it is across the street from Kapiolani park with a nice walking trail. You might bring a suit, sunscreen, water bottle, and/or walking shoes to enjoy the beautiful outdoors on your lunch break!
